the boring
resolutions and unleash our inner Picassos, Van Goghs, and Kahlos!*

Here are some fun and inspiring art resolutions for mini-masters like you:

1. Explore a New Medium:

- Have you always been fascinated by clay? Maybe it's time to try your hand at pottery or sculpture. Or perhaps you're drawn to the vibrant world of textiles. Weave a magical wall hanging or design your tote bag. Don't be afraid to experiment! You never know what hidden talents you might discover.

2. Master a Technique:

- Have you been wanting to learn how to draw portraits like a pro? Sign up for a drawing class or practice from online tutorials. Maybe you're eager to conquer the art of watercolor washes. Experiment with different brushstrokes and color combinations. With dedication and a little practice, you'll be amazed at what you can achieve!

3. Create a Masterpiece for Someone Special:

- Imagine the joy on your grandma's face when she receives a hand-painted portrait of her beloved pet. Design a one-of-a-kind greeting card for your best friend's birthday. Let your creativity flow and express your love and appreciation through art.

4. Visit an Art Exhibition:

- Immerse yourself in the world of renowned artists and discover new styles and techniques. Many museums offer special programs and activities for children, making art appreciation a fun family outing. Or visit CAMI and be inspired by the peers and let their creativity ignite your own!

5. Fill Your Year with Color:

- Challenge yourself to use a different color palette each month. Create a colorful calendar or planner to brighten up your days. Let your surroundings inspire you – capture the vibrant hues of a blooming flower or the fiery sunset in your artwork.
